Mr. Cochran:

I write in response to your letter to Ford Motor Company concerning the auto parts class action settlements. Unfortunately, Ford is not able to provide the information you have requested. Trying to identify the parts subject to the settlement agreement that were installed in the vehicles purchased by your clients would be unduly burdensome, and Ford has similarly objected to producing such information in response to a subpoena served on Ford and other OEMs in the auto parts MDL.

Regards,

Sarah

Thanks for your quick response. At yesterday's fairness hearing in the End-Payor settlements, class counsel represented that the parties will soon come out with a way to match parts and vehicles. Do you know anything about that?

Mr. Cochran:

No, we do not know anything about the parties' proposed methodology for matching parts and vehicles.

Regards,

Sarah
